

Cookie Policy

Nerium International Germany GmbH

We use cookies on this website.

A cookie consists of information sent by a web server to a web browser, and stored by the browser. The information is then sent back to the server each time the browser requests a page from the server. This enables the web server to identify and track the web browser.

We use Adobe Analytics to analyze the use of this site, and create personalized experiences for each user. Adobe Analytics uses cookies to keep you logged in across pages, and deliver dynamic content. Most of the cookies set by Marketing Cloud products contain no personally identifiable information. These cookies and associated data are secure and used only for your company's reports, and to provide relevant content and advertisements. The data is not available to third parties or other Adobe customers, unless used in aggregated industry reports. For example, the Digital Marketing Insight Report analyzes aggregated and anonymous data across retailers. For more information, Adobe's cookie policy is available at https://marketing.adobe.com/resources/help/en_US/whitepapers/cookies/adobe_mc_cookies.pdf.

In addition, we use Google Analytics to analyze the use of this website. Google Analytics generates statistical and other information about website use by means of cookies, which are stored on users' computers. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website. Google will store this information. Google's privacy policy is available at www.google.com/privacypolicy.html.

We use FullStory to record user sessions in order to measure how our site is used, as well as find and understand defects in our site. It never collects or stores personal information about any individual users. For more information on FullStory's privacy policy, please visit <https://www.fullstory.com/legal/privacy/>.

We also use Facebook to personalize content and, measure ads, and provide a safe experience. The information generated relating to our website is used to create reports about the use of the website. Facebook will store this information. Facebook's privacy policy is available at <https://www.facebook.com/policies/cookies/>.

Most browsers allow you to refuse to accept cookies. (For example, in Internet Explorer you can refuse all cookies by clicking "Tools", "Internet Options", "Privacy", and selecting "Block all cookies" using the sliding selector.) This will, however, have a negative impact upon the usability of many websites, including this one.
